Quick Guide for Multi-factor Authentication

You'll need to use a registered phone with Multi-factor Authentication, powered by Duo, before you can access many of Northwestern's administrative systems.

Register Now For:

- Secure access when you are away from the of ce, abroad, or in locations with no mobile or Wi-Fi access.

- Peace of mind that access to your personal information can only be authorized by you.

- Additional protection of University data even if someone learns your NetID password.

Begin Registration and follow the step-by-step instructions.

   a. To register your any other phone , you will be guided to answer a phone call and press any button on your phone to approve a test login.